

James Michi

Jay Michi is a partner at Jensen law, Kamloops where he practises criminal defence law. He has successfully conducted countless trials and appeared as lead counsel at every level of court in the Province of British Columbia. His focus is on defending clients facing complex criminal matters.

Mr. Michi obtained his BA from University of Calgary in 2007 and his law degree from Thompson Rivers University in 2014. He has been an integral part of the Jensen Law team since 2012. Prior to moving to Kamloops in 2011, he worked as an Executive Director in the nonprofit sector in Calgary, Alberta

Mr. Michi has been a director of ALL since 2019 and serves as the Chairperson of the Finance & Fundraising Committee. In November of 2023, Jay was elected to serve a two year term as Bencher for Kamloops District. As a bencher, he has served on the Law Society's Credentials Committee, and has made working with articled students his priority.
